Superfast broadband is coming to Bridport

BRIDPORT will be among the first communities to benefit from a multi-million pound rollout of superfast broadband in Dorset, with 7,900 homes set to be connected.

Superfast Dorset, a partnership between the Government, BT and local councils, announced that homes and businesses in Bridport, Charmouth and Chideock would benefit during the first phase of the project, with customers able to connect to the high-speed service by the end of June.

Superfast broadband will deliver speeds of at least 24Mbps and considerably higher in some places.

Councillor Spencer Flower, Leader of Dorset County Council, said: "This initial phase of work will make a huge difference to a lot of people, especially residents and businesses in Bridport

by Jack Dixon

who will have access to the fibre network for the first time.

"Research shows Dorset people want to be able to watch TV and films online, work from home more easily, buy and sell online and find out about local services.

"Faster, more reliable broadband connections will enable them to do all this more easily."

Other parts of Dorset will be connected to the fibre-optic service in a series of phased introductions, and Superfast Dorset aims to have 95 per cent of the county connected by the end of 2016.

The £31.75m partnership also plans to ensure a minimum speed of 2Mbps for all premises within the programme area where fibre broadband is not viable.

Dorset County Councillor Ros Kayes said: "I am really delighted that after much lobbying from a variety of directions over a number of years, Bridport is first to be connected in the roll-out.

"This will make a huge difference to businesses in the area as well as to ordinary families – every £1 spent brings £8 worth of extra business to rural Dorset.

"Modernising of our network is so vital and it is great that we will finally be able to make the most of higher speeds.

"I do take on the concerns of communities like Marshwood however, which has been lobbying for as long to no avail.

"If rural communities are to be sustainable they must enable the people who live in them to work – and a fast broadband connection is the key to that."

Bill Murphy, managing director of Next Generation Access for BT Group, said: "Today's announcement is a major step forward in a multi-million pound partnership, which will help transform broadband communications in Dorset.

"This exciting technology will provide a major boost for local businesses and households whether they are seeking to attract new customers and become more competitive or simply using the internet for educational and leisure purposes. Whatever you do online you can do it better with fibre broadband."

Bridport superfast business master classes and digital inclusion training sessions are also being planned, and the Superfast Dorset team will be visiting other phase one areas to hold launch events at a later date.

Vodafone signal back online

VODAFONE customers in Bridport were celebrating last week after their service was restored following more than 10 days of being cut off.

Vodafone confirmed that the basic 2G service for phone calls and text messages was back up and running, but that problems had persisted with the advanced 3G service used for access to the web.

Bridport town councillor Julian May, who runs an online marketing and web development company, said: "It is better than nothing but it is still a bit annoying that the full 3G coverage is not available.

"It has affected a lot of people who rely on their mobile phones – the bottom line is that businesses have lost money over this.

"We have heard a lot of rumours but no one knows for sure what the precise problems have been."

The service provider said last week that the problems were due to a failure of the BT cabling that links the local site into the rest of the network, and that maintenance work on the 3G service could continue into March.

Karen Hussey, secretary of Bridport Business, the town's Chamber of Trade, said: "As a Vodafone user it was incredibly frustrating because there was no information given about how long it would go on for. It was quite appalling.

"It has been very difficult just trying to communicate with anyone. In offices it would have been very inconvenient and for people out and about or on site, it must have been even worse."

HEIDI Davies is a joint leader at the Gundry Lane Baby and Toddler Group in Bridport.

The group closed in 2012 because of a lack of volunteers, but with the help of other parents, Heidi got it up and running again last year.

The group received a donation of £500 from Bridport Round Table last week which has gone towards providing much-needed equipment to improve the safety and comfort of facilities for the children.

● HOW long have you lived in Bridport?
I have lived in Bridport all my life - 34 years.

● WHAT do you like about living in the town?
It has a nice close-knit community - when you are out and about you always see someone you know. The events that happen through the year like the carnival, torchlight, Christmas cheer night and hat festival, are all good fun and are enjoyed by all the family. It is lovely being so near to the beach and having lots of nice countryside around - it is great for the kids.

● WHAT do you do for a living?
I have always worked with children in various different settings. I was a nanny for a local family before working in a nursery, then I worked at a school and also as a childminder. But now I am currently being kept busy with my own three children and helping to run the family business.

● WHEN was the toddler group set up?
Gundry Lane Toddler Group has been running for over 30 years by various different volunteers but when the group closed in 2012 due to lack of volunteers we really missed it and felt that there was not really any other parent/child activities in the area on a Thursday. So in January 2013 some friends and I decided to get it up and running again.

● HAS it been a success so far? What benefits does it bring for children and parents?
The group has been very successful and we have been really busy. It is a friendly and relaxed environment in which children can have fun and play with others. It gives parents, grandparents and carers a chance to meet and chat with other adults. The hall is a good size so is great for the children to be able to use up some of their energy, especially when the weather is not good enough for outdoor activities.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

● DO parents provide all of the equipment? How important are donations like the one you received from Round Table?

The equipment we have is bought using funds raised from our entry fee and fundraising events. A lot of the toys/equipment have been built up over the years, and as some of it is quite dated and well used, we are trying to replace things as and when our funds allow us to.

The funding we received from the Round Table for the new mats was brilliant because we would never have been able to afford to buy them otherwise and they were desperately needed to make the play areas safer and more comfortable for the children.

● WHAT is the biggest thing you have learned from being a mother?

The biggest thing I have learned from being a mum is to take time during the chaos of day to day life to enjoy those special moments with the children because they grow up so quickly, but those special times together will be the happy memories that they remember.

Call to make Chancery House 'community hub' for social care

A DISTRICT councillor has called for Dorset County Council to invest in Chancery House Day Centre instead of building a new, multi-purpose community hub in Bridport.

Speaking at a recent public meeting held at Bridport Town Hall, West Dorset District Councillor for Bridport North, Keith Day, said Chancery House was an "efficient" charity that was already "well positioned" to become a community hub.

Dorset County Council has launched a public consultation into adult social care services and is hoping to hear from members of the public about plans for a £4.7m investment.

Current options include building a new, multi-purpose community hub for day services in Bridport, as well as possibilities for replacement buildings at Sidney Gale Care Home. Both centres could be closed to make way for new facilities.

by Jack Dixon

But Councillor Day, who is a trustee at Chancery House, has suggested that time and money would be better spent investing in the town's current services.

He said: "Chancery House is a purpose-built day centre that already provides a range of services for the increasing number of elderly people that we have in Bridport and the surrounding areas.

"It is therefore well positioned to become the community 'hub' without the need to incur large building costs – particularly at a time when the county council is aiming to make massive savings across the county."

Dorset County Council is planning to invest in a range of adult social care services, including delivery of day services, care for older people, and support for people to stay healthy and independent in the community for as long as possible.

Cllr Day added: "Instead of the vast expense and obvious delay that designing and building a new day care facility in Bridport would entail, I would suggest that a moderately small grant to Chancery

House would enable a fully functioning hub to be available within a very short space of time.

"Chancery House is not only a caring organisation – it is an efficient local charity making every pound that we receive work hard for the benefit of our users. Dorset County Council should consider making better use of our facilities before embarking on major and expensive building programs."

Bridport town councillor Karl Wallace is also launching a separate appeal to residents regarding the possibility of running Sidney Gale Care Home as a social enterprise project.

Councillor Wallace referred to the care home on Flood Lane as a "community asset" and urged residents to contact him if they are interested in taking the idea forward.

The consultation period lasts until Friday, March 7th and members of the public can take part online at www.dorsetforyou.com/bridport-consultation, or by picking up a questionnaire from Bridport Tourist Information Centre and various other locations around the town.

Electric Palace under threat?

THE Electric Palace, one of Bridport's premier live venues, could be under threat of closure if it is not granted an extension to its licence.

West Dorset District Council identified an anomaly in the venue's premises licence that shows the Palace is not currently licensed to provide entertainment and supply alcohol in the foyer.

The Palace has submitted an application for an extension of the licence, which councillors will consider later this month.

If the application is rejected, management staff at the Palace say they could be forced to close the venue, and they are now calling on members of the public to lobby the council for an extension to the licence.

Venue owner Peter Hitchin said: "We have applied to extend our licence to include the foyer and councillors will consider our application at the end of this month.

"However, we believe there may be objections raised to the extension of the licence, so it may be denied.

"This could mean the Palace would have to close, as income from the bar is often the only profit we make at many events.

"If you have ever enjoyed an event at the Electric Palace, whether a film, comedy night or live music event, we would like to call on your support. Your letters of support could swing it."

The 500 capacity centre was reopened as a multi-purpose live entertainment venue in 2008, and has won plaudits for its art-deco interior and intimate atmosphere.

The Palace has welcomed established artists including PJ Harvey and The Proclaimers in recent years, as well as high-profile comedians such as Lee Mack and Lenny Henry. The venue's patrons include Sir John Colfox, Andrew Carnegie-Dickson and Mike Leigh.

Programme manager Hélène Frisby said: "Sales from the bar are our main source of revenue – we are going to struggle without it. It is quite a deal-breaker for us.

"The Palace has always been a big part of Bridport's cultural life and everybody in the town has been very supportive so far."

She said there had been concerns in the past over the issue of noise pollution but confirmed that the Palace has done all it can to follow the regulations.

She added: "The noise that people make out in the smoking area can be a nuisance and the more events we put on, the more footfall we have outside the venue. But we do our utmost to stop that and we always abide by the rules according to the book.

"We want to embed the Palace more into the community – we would like it to become a cultural outlet for people in Bridport."

Witness appeal after collision

POLICE in Bridport are appealing for witnesses to come forward after a road traffic collision in Watton

A blue Ford Fusion collided with a white and orange Ford Transit van at around 1:45pm on January 31st on the west-bound carriageway of the A35, near Broomhills Farm. The driver of the Ford Fusion sustained minor injuries during the incident.

Police Constable Sara Mackay said: "I am particularly keen to talk to the driver of a white Transit van who wasn't involved in the collision but may be able to provide some information.

"I would also like to hear from anyone else who was in the area at the time and may have witnessed the collision itself."

Anyone with information should call Dorset Police on 101 quoting incident number 31:249, or call the anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111.

Mountjoy 'working in the right direction'

MOUNTJOY School in Beaminster is making progress having been judged by Ofsted in an inspection last October as in need of improvement in its leadership and management, writes STUART BROOM.

The special needs school that relocated from Bridport to a new purpose built home alongside Beaminster School in November 2012 had been rated outstanding in their previous inspection but were deemed as requiring improvement.

Since the inspection the governing body and Local Authority have put in place an acting headteacher for three days a week. The roles and responsibilities of governors have been reviewed and a new chair and vice chair of governors appointed. A teaching assistant and two midday supervisors have joined the school staff since September 2013.

Ofsted Inspector Mark Lindfield visited the school just before Christmas to monitor progress. He has reported that: "Senior leaders and governors are taking effective action to tackle the areas requiring improvement identified at the recent inspection."

The letter following the monitoring visit, addressed to the acting head Lesley Cook, added that further action was still required to increase the level of challenge and support from the governing body, as well as ensuring that teachers regularly plan lessons that are precisely matched to the different needs of all pupils, especially more able pupil.

New Chairman of Governors, Tracy Scammell, said: "The area identified for improvement by Ofsted was management and leadership, not the teaching. All the current members of staff have been working very, very hard alongside the new headteacher to get the new plans in place.

"I was involved in the meetings when Mr Lindfield visited. He was able to say that the school was working in the right direction, and was well on track to getting back to its previous level."

Council recovers Icelandic funds

DORSET County Council has sold its claims against the insolvent estate of Landsbanki (LBI).

The claims were sold through a competitive auction process. The price that the claims were sold at was based on a reserve price set by Dorset County Council.

This price was based on legal advice received from Bevan Brittan, financial advice procured by the Local Government Association (LGA) and the county council's own analysis of the financial position.

The proceeds of the sale were paid in cash in pounds sterling and those funds have already been received by the county council.

Councillor Robert Gould, Cabinet member for corporate resources, said: "The sale means that we have recovered 94.5 per cent of the amounts that were originally deposited with LBI in 2008.

"We are obviously delighted that we have recovered a very large portion of our LBI deposits. The sale of our claims represents a clean break. Dorset County Council is therefore now no longer a creditor of LBI."

The administration of the insolvent estate may continue for a number of years.

By selling the claim the county council has removed this uncertainty and this has allowed the local authority to put the money received from the sale to use supporting vital public services.

Dorset County Council is also continuing to receive payments from the administrators of Heritable bank.

So far the county council has recovered 95 per cent of the total sum invested in Icelandic banks.

Support for rural crime network

DORSET Police and Crime Commissioner, Martyn Underhill, has welcomed the establishment of a new scheme, which aims to help tackle rural crime.

The National Rural Crime Network will provide an online resource enabling police and community safety practitioners to interact more easily.

Under the new scheme it will be more straightforward for police to share information and link up with other mechanisms for reporting crime and suspicious behaviour.

Dorset PCC Martyn Underhill said: "As the Commissioner for a largely rural police force in England, I am particularly keen to support this initiative.

"Crime in rural areas accounts for a large proportion of Dorset Police's demand.

"There are significant pressures on rural police forces and by coming together, we will be able to speak in a strong and united voice.

"I am particularly pleased that the network also includes other organisations dedicated to rural communities. In this way, we should all be able to learn from one another and work collaboratively on new ideas and solutions that will benefit our local people."

The idea originated with the Rural Services Network, a not-for-profit organisation that represents a diverse range of rural service providers in the public, private and voluntary sectors.

Nick Payne, from the Rural Services Network, said: "There is a common perception that rural crime is less significant than that occurring in cities and towns. The impact of rural crime is just as serious as it is elsewhere and it is becoming an increasing problem as austerity bites and as police resources are stretched thinner.

"There is good collaborative work already occurring in some localities but it is widely acknowledged that sharing of best practice is patchy and urgently needs to be improved.

"The network will ensure that it is effectively coordinated and sustained.

"It will also be developing strong links to academic research resources as well as promoting successful techniques to encourage rural communities to become more resilient in these difficult times."

Panto Players delight

THEATRE REVIEW by Philip Evans 'Sleeping Beauty' by Bridport Pantomime Players at The Electric Palace

FOUNDED in 1966 by the late Bernard Gale, Bridport Pantomime Players have scored numerous successes with their productions over the years, delighting local audiences with their version of all the great panto favourites.

Last week's production of Sleeping Beauty, presented in association with the Lyric School of Dancing and The Rhythm Dance Centre, at The Electric Palace, will have added to their reputation in no small measure.

Dance has always played a big part in Bridport pantomimes down the years, a legacy from the Bernard Gale influence, and Sleeping Beauty was certainly no exception with dozens of youngsters from the Lyric School of Dancing and pupils from the Rhythm Dance Centre playing a crucial role under the expert eye of choreographer Teresa Grinter, her assistant Amy Wheatley and dance teacher Rebecca Mather.

In fact, it was a tiny tot who got the biggest cheer of the evening when I attended on Thursday.

She was executing her routines with great gusto when suddenly she spotted her parents in the audience, stopped in her tracks waving frantically and shouting "Hello Mum, it's me!"

Some lively musical numbers, realistic scenery and excellent costumes added to the success of the evening and the audience, in true Bridport fashion, played their part by joining in the frivolity.

I thought all the leading players gave a good account of themselves.

Teresa Grinter took the role of the Good Fairy Lilac, dispensing charm and good deeds with great confidence, and Amy Wheatley, as the Bad Witch Hazel, whipped the audience into a frenzy of boos and hisses with her nasty deeds and cackling laughter.

Much of the humour came from Ziggy Gray playing the role of Muddles, adided and abetted in the comedy stakes by Sue Farrant at Fetch and Tracey Caden as Carry.

Jess Ives and Roy Bowskill were well suited as Queen Marigold and King Cactus and Emily Deer made a charming Prince Rose.

Amy Day was confidence personified playing the principal boy roles of the Princes Alex and Alexander.

And the undoubted star of the show was Anthony Steventon who took the dame's role of Nurse Dottie Dettol, making the very most of his (or should I say her) outlandish wardrobe.

The four fairies were played by Tina Boulay, Tara Grinter, Amber Plafreyman and Sarah Williams, completing the line-up of principal players who were all cheered to the rafters when they took their curtain call.

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Squash open day at Bridport Leisure Centre

BRIDPORT Leisure Centre is hosting a squash open day on Thursday, February 13th.

The idea belongs to Jason Martin, the centre's new head squash coach to provide a platform for local children and adults to give the sport a go.

The target market really is anyone who just likes the idea of playing squash but doesn't know where to start.

Whilst there will be established and regular squash players who will be taking an interest it is hoped to attract the occasional social player in or those who have never picked up a racket at all.

There are activities planned for all ages of juniors and adults through the afternoon and evening.

Jason has moved to Dorset from Oxfordshire with a wealth of squash experience behind him. He played squash from a young age, played professionally as a teenager and at 17 began coaching.

The squash coaching hasn't always been at the centre of his life though. He worked as a broker and then got into health club management and tennis coaching.

Squash has always been his passion though and he has used these other pursuits to help develop and add breadth to his squash experience.

He has taught squash full time in London and had spells in America and Australia.

He's been head coach for Oxfordshire, developed successful coaching programmes and summer camps.

Whilst there have been some negative aspects for the sport – continued failure to get the sport into the Olympics, and numerous squash clubs and courts closing down – there are some key positive notes to add. He believes a streamlining of facilities isn't necessarily a problem.

"I grew up at a club with 16 courts, and they were always packed out" he commented.

"Bigger squash clubs are just too difficult to sustain financially though, a squash court takes up valuable floor space".

There are in fact still over half a million people playing squash regularly in this country and there is a squash club or leisure centre within easy reach of everyone in the country.

The key is very clear, he says: "You just have to use the facilities you have and make sure you organise meaningful activities. The starting point is to have a centre manager who at least understands the sport, and either a really good group of volunteers and a versatile motivated coach.

"Bridport is very well placed with Nick Neale as general manager. He plays the sport and plays in one of the teams; there is a good club committee with volunteers and plenty of squash activity already in place.

"In some respects a lot of the hard work has already been done, there are four teams playing in the local Dorset leagues, strong internal leagues, and regular competitions and a little bit of coaching all in place."

What Jason hopes to add is a better structure for coaching, more players learning and developing their skills and with more regular coaching for juniors and adults and crucially activity aimed at those with little or no experience.

The initial courses are part funded by England Squash and Racketball, the sport's governing body and one of the key activities is Squashercise (or Cardio Squash as Jason likes to call it). It's really a fitness class on a squash court with music playing.

"Squash has always been fantastic exercise, but Squashercise enables those who don't know how to start playing, a class they can just book into like a weekly gym class," Jason added.

At the other end of the scale, Jason has plenty of team training planned for the centre's best players.

He hopes to replicate some of the success he has had as a player and with his spells managing a National Squash League team and training the world number three.

For details of the open day and the regular squash sessions Jason is starting up, check out the Bridport Leisure Centre website at www.bridportleisure.com or call reception on 01308 427464.

Broadchurch creator: show's success helped by community's support

by Stuart Broom

THE creator of the award winning TV smash hit Broadchurch thanked the community for their support when he received the latest of a line of accolades last week.

Chris Chibnall was presented with the Bridport & District Tourism Association award for 'The Most Significant Contribution to Local Tourism'.

Just 24 hours earlier he had attended this year's Broadcast Awards at London's Grosvenor Hotel where the crime drama beat Last Tango in Halifax and The Fall to land the Best Drama Series as well as the International Programme Sales, but he dedicated the latest award to the tourism businesses in the Bridport area and the amazing support of the community of West Dorset.

He said he felt slightly a fraud when receiving the award from the association's chairman Scott Condliffe at Haddon House: "The reason I wrote Broadchurch is because I was on holiday and fell in love with the area and the establishments you all run and the environment you've all created for tourism made me fall in love with it; really Broadchurch couldn't have happened without the amazing support of the community here.

"I wrote my fantasy script and it had my huts at Eype, the caravans at Freshwater and it was very easy to sit at home and write that down.

"Then a whole team came along and persuaded people to cooperate, and so the things that I wrote became reality and got on to the screen and into people's minds and hearts because of the people in this room and everybody that lives locally.

He added: "It's the support for the show that has blown all of us away and it feels like not only a team effort on the production, but to me that the whole area got behind the show in production and then when it went out and was received so positively, which took us all by surprise.

"Again everybody in this area got behind it and supported it and were so incredibly positively and that's been such an extraordinary experience.

"I would reflect this award back on you and say everyone who works in tourism and helped us make the show, and ultimately persuaded everybody who has visited having seen the show. The reason people come back is because of the extraordinary people who work in tourism here and the amazing welcome they receive.

"And so I would like to say thank you to you, because the things that make Broadchurch special are this area and the people in it, and so I can only accept it as a recognition of everybody in this community."

Mr Chibnall who is also the executive director as well as the writer was tight lipped about the story of a second series and if it would feature West Bay and West Dorset, except to say it would probably be early summer before there would be any news.

Such is his determination not to give anything away he says he hasn't even told his father: "He is most upset that I have haven't told him despite promising not to tell anyone."

Bridport tourism making great strides

BRIDPORT & District Tourism Association (BDTA) have made great strides in the past year and are looking at improving the benefits to local businesses in the year to come.

Chairman Scott Condliffe told members at their monthly meeting held at Haddon House that last year they focussed on three areas: networking, marketing and lobbying - all of which had proved successful.

Networking was the most important aspect and the need to encourage and facilitate members to meet each other, share experiences and support each other.

He said: "This is one of the most tangible achievements of our association where members are able to meet and form friendships and establish important agreements to pass surplus bookings between themselves, or where others have had unpleasant experiences with local officials, are able to pass this information on to the association which we disseminate through newsletters and social evenings."

He added that marketing was the second major point of their focus and making reference to the cliffs which had features so prominently in the Broadchurch crime drama he said that the association market the area as 'Dorset's Golden Coast' on their website and in publications.

"The committee is currently discussing new ways of marketing the area including featuring holidays as prizes, which will be an interesting thing to achieve this year," he continued.

Mr Condliffe went on to state that a significant amount of time had been spent this year over the third objective which is lobbying.

"With such a small budget, much of what we achieve is through others, particularly the district and county councils, and there have been several issues affecting local tourism probably the biggest of which has been the coast road," he said.

"For almost a year I have been on the Coastal

by Stuart Broom
stuart@pemedial.co.uk

Road Action Committee, and Eonnie Sinclair is the chairman and he has achieved some amazing things in the last few weeks.

"We have had lots of meeting in county hall with the Environment Director to achieve the replacement of the white lines on the coast road; anyone who has driven along the coast road in fog will know how important that is.

"Another major achievement is to gain agreement with the county council to reinstate signage along the coast road.

"In 2008 there was a decision to review and remove signage at the Bridport and Weymouth end of the road which pointed people to drive along the coast road which has resulted in a significant effect on businesses along the route.

"The idea is to push it one stage further to improve what was there before by branding the route 'The Jurassic Coast Road', which we can add to include as a feature in our advertising.

"Personally I think the view from the top of Abbotsbury Hill on a clear day is world class and a shame that many tourists are coming to the area and not seeing it."

He also reported on lobbying against the new waste transfer site at Broomhills which was recently given planning permission.

The BDTA are against this project and have grave concerns about the implications for traffic jams during the tourist season.

Mr Condliffe said: "The A35 is already at capacity between the western approach to The Crown and the eastern approach into the town and the proposal to put traffic lights on this road is going to produce gridlock at certain times."

He also outlined the BDTA's involvement as an active member of Local Area Partnership steering committee and that they now attend the town council's Market Business liaison sub-committee which enables the association to be involved, consulted and be influential in town and district discussions

"Our plan is to use these meetings as a means of reducing marketing and other duplication that exists between our association, the Chamber of Trade, the Spirit of Bridport, etc, and to work together where this makes sense," he said.

Looking forward to the coming year he hoped all members realises the importance of social media - Twitter and Facebook particularly - and as such the association has taken steps to arrange training in Twitter on Tuesday, March 18th at Highlands End.

Mr Condliffe also reminded members to continue notifying the BDTA of roadworks and closure which have had enormous impact, and how they had several successes in the past in converting a road closure into a restriction which makes an enormous difference.

He sympathised with the businesses in Beaminster saying: "It is very frustrating for our colleagues in Beaminster to see another closure for two weeks for resurfacing after being closed for nearly two years not so long ago."

He said the BDTA were also committed to ensure Superfast broadband was installed as soon as possible and suggested if not it may affect tourism of people from major cities who already have it."

ALL SMILES | Volunteers at the Gundry Lane baby and toddler group have thanked Bridport Round Table for their donation of £500. The money was spent on six new soft mats to make the Youth Centre floor safer and more comfortable for children to play on. The group's joint leader Heidi Davies said she was "very grateful" for the "much-needed" funding. Also pictured (from left to right) are volunteer helpers Sue Phillips, Hayley Ferris and Anna Bishop with Simon Wakely (left) and Darren Batten (right) from Bridport Round Table. The group meets every Thursday during term time between 9:30am and 11:30am and welcomes children between the ages of 0 and 5.

Drivers stage second day of strike action

BUS drivers in Bridport have gone on strike for the second time in a matter of weeks after talks between the Unite union and First Dorset broke down again.

Sixty drivers in Bridport and Weymouth staged a 24-hour walk out on Monday, having rejected the company's latest offer.

First Dorset made a revised offer following a day of strike action by drivers in January, but Unite members rejected the latest deal because there were "too many strings attached".

Unite Regional Officer Bob Lanning said: "Our members overwhelmingly rejected the offer because there were too many strings attached to the proposed deal that would have seen the terms and conditions of the drivers seriously eroded.

"The crux of this dispute is that our members are lagging behind the pay of their counterparts working for other regional bus operators, at a time when household bills are going through the roof."

First Dorset drivers are currently paid £8.30 an hour, which Unite says is substantially less than their colleagues elsewhere in the region.

A strike day planned for Wednesday January 29th was called off as discussions seemed to be moving forward, but the latest day of action looks to have slowed negotiations once more.

Mr Lanning added: "We regret any inconvenience caused to the travelling public, but our members feel that they have been pushed to the wall by this cheese-paring management."

The day of action had the potential to disturb services across the county, but First Dorset insisted that extensive contingency plans ensured an "almost full" service.

Staff from the Hampshire and Berkshire area were drafted in as cover and timetables ran as normal for services 1, 2, three, 4, six, 8, 10, 47 and 387, which included the Bridport area. All school and college buses also operated as normal.

Marc Reddy, managing director for First Dorset, Hampshire and Berkshire, said: "While it is disappointing and frustrating that again, some of our drivers have chosen to go on strike, we have worked behind the scenes and I am pleased we were able to operate practically a full service on Monday.

"To meet the travelling needs of our customers we continue to do everything we can to run services as normal and minimise any impact.

"We will also keep customers informed through the website, Twitter and Facebook about any further changes to their services which may occur."

Council Tax: Police precept set to rise

by Jack Dixon

THE share of council tax that goes to the police is set to increase, despite objections raised by members of the Dorset Police and Crime Panel.

Police and Crime Commissioner Martyn Underhill has decided to increase the police precept for 2014/15 by 1.96 per cent and will go ahead with the proposals even though more than half of the panel's members voted against it.

The proposed increase equates to £187.11 for a Band D property – a rise of £3.60 on the current year – and from April, households across Dorset will pay an extra seven pence per week.

The panel, which met at County Hall in Dorchester last week, had the authority to veto the proposal if two thirds of its members voted against, but only 9 out of 16 objected.

Mr Underhill said: "I would like to thank the Dorset Police and Crime Panel for supporting my precept proposals and everyone who has taken part in our precept consultation.

"The budget I will now be setting will secure the recruitment of 16 new police officers, 300 body-worn cameras for officers across Dorset, a cyber crime awareness campaign and seven rural community vehicles."

He added: "My decision to recommend raising the precept has not been made lightly. The 1.96 per cent option represents the best balance between sustaining the force and seeking to limit the impact on council tax payers, in the context of reduced central funding."

The decision has been criticised by West Dorset District Councillor Chris Loder, who has called for the precept to be means-tested.

Councillor Loder said: "Rural Dorset has just been told that virtually all of its police station desks are to be closed. I cannot understand how an elected Commissioner can make rural people – almost 50 per cent of the Dorset population – contribute more to the police force but continue to run down services in rural areas.

"It is grossly unfair and not acceptable. I call on the Commissioner to means-test the precept so that rural people actually pay for the service they receive."

Councillor John Adams, chairman of the Police and Crime Panel, clarified the panel's position: "The panel's role is to scrutinise the Commissioner's plans and determine whether his funding sources are the most appropriate.

"The panel's view is that there were other more suitable funding options that could have been utilised by the Commissioner, including using the previous year's underspend, drawing on reserves or taking advantage of affordable, competitive borrowing.

"Under the legislation, 12 votes were needed in order to veto the Commissioner's plans and so the proposals stood."

Warnings still in place as stormy weather persists

WARNINGS have been put in place for potential further disruption to transport services and power supplies, with stormy weather set to continue throughout the week ahead.

Dorset has felt the full impact of the weather over the last week, with heavy rain and strong gales laying siege to the coastline and causing disruption to services further inland.

And there are no signs of a let up in conditions, with the Met Office enforcing an amber warning of wind and a yellow warning of rain for today (Wednesday) and tomorrow.

A Met Office spokesman said that the South West could "bear the brunt" over the next few days with gusts of 60-70 mph predicted.

Further rainfall could also make the

by Jack Dixon

situation worse for flood victims. The forecaster said: "Another Atlantic depression is expected to bring a spell of heavy rainfall and very strong winds to parts of the UK later on Wednesday, perhaps lasting into Thursday."

"Southern and western parts of England and Wales look most likely to see further heavy rainfall."

"Falling soon after earlier widespread rainfall, the cumulative effects of these weather systems are likely to exacerbate the current flooding situation."

West Bay, pictured below right, experienced some of the worst of the county's weather last week, with severe flood warnings – indicating a danger to life – issued on Wednesday morning (February 4th). Police were forced to close the Esplanade after huge waves battered the coast, demolishing a wall and overturning paving slabs near Westpoint Apartments.

Two fire crews from Bridport and one from Dorchester were called to Askerswell later on Wednesday morning where an overturned lorry, blown over by strong winds, was blocking the A35.

The incident caused delays on the road and First Dorset buses were unable to run the 31 and X53 services between Dorchester and Bridport.

The B3157 West Bay Road also had to be closed due to a fallen tree near the Haddon House hotel.

Dorset County Council's multi-agency weather taskforce were urging the public to follow warning signs and listen to officials when near the coast, after reports of people endangering themselves by getting too close.

Amber weather warnings remained in place until Saturday but the worst of the weather was felt further along the coast at Weymouth and Portland.

The Environment Agency has issued a low risk warning for groundwater flooding in Dorset, with an additional warning of further degradation of rural sea defences in the county. For local flood information contact Floodline on 0345 9881188 or 0845 9881188.

Lottery grant to help heathlands flourish

DORSET Wildlife Trust and its partners have won a £2.7 million grant from the Heritage Lottery Fund to improve the county's heathland.

The Great Heath Living Landscape is one of the largest conservation projects in the UK and with a total budget of £4.7 million, will secure the protection and management of almost 1,500 acres of wildlife rich heathland, grassland, woods and wetland for the benefit of people and wildlife in Poole, Bournemouth, Christchurch and East Dorset.

Dorset Wildlife Trust says the grant will enable the purchase of nationally and internationally important habitats at Holes Bay and Lytchett Bay in Poole Harbour and heathlands at Parley Common, Ferndown Common, Dunyeats Hill and Upton Heath.

The project aims to link two outstanding areas of natural heritage – the New Forest National Park and the Wild Purbeck Nature Improvement Area.

Dorset's heathlands, such as Upton Heath, provide a home for many rare and threatened species, including the Dartford Warbler which is now thriving after numbers plummeted to just 11 breeding pairs nationally in the 1960s, four of which were in Dorset, following severe winter weather.

All six of the UK's reptiles can be found on the county's heathland, including the nationally rare smooth snake and sand lizard which can only be seen in a few places in the UK.

DWT Director of Operations, Brian Blease, said: "Buying this land from the Canford Estate was a once in a lifetime opportunity, and thanks to the HLF funding, generous donations from the public, local businesses and funding from our partners, we can now develop an urban Living Landscape which is rich in wildlife, highly valued, enjoyed and nurtured by people.

"We aim to provide high quality access networks and interpretation, to allow everyone to learn about and experience the stunning wildlife on their doorstep."

Dorset Wildlife Trust and its partners still need to raise £50,000 by the end of March to match the HLF grant and secure The Great Heath for generations to come.

"To donate, and for more information about The Great Heath Living Landscape project, including a video about the wildlife and the areas it will benefit, visit www.dorsetwildlifetrust.org.uk

Bottle wins Pub of the Year

by Trevor Bevin

THE Bottle Inn at Marshwood has been named as the West Dorset branch of the Campaign for Real Ale (CAMRA) Pub of the Year.

Built in 1585, in the times of Queen Elizabeth I, the thatched inn was voted the best pub in West Dorset by CAMRA members, coming top of the poll by a wide margin.

"The Bottle Inn is in many ways is the perfect English country pub, with a thatched roof and porch, an open fire and a splendid selection of six real ales," said CAMRA spokesman Michel Hooper-Immins.

"The judges were particularly impressed by the warmth of the welcome from licensees Chrissy and Nigel Blake, as well as the high standard of their beers, several of which are sourced from less than 30 miles away.

"Running a pub is never easy and particularly in such an isolated location, but the licensees are attracting more and more local and passing trade with their friendly and relaxed ways."

Nigel Blake was born in Cornwall, but grew-up in Weymouth. He ran bars in Tenerife for 15 years, meeting Sunderland-born Chrissy on the island ten years ago. The couple decided to return to Dorset and searched for a pub to run.

"Two years ago, we arrived at the closed Bottle Inn to find total decay," recalls Mr Blake.

"The porch had fallen in, but the pub had so much charm – it just felt right for us. We thought the Bottle had a lot of potential."

They had moved in by April 2012 and were ready to reopen in August 2012.

"We started with three real ales and worked up to six ever changing beers – customers like the variety," said Mr Blacke.

All around the roof are pump clips of the various beers which have been dispensed through the six traditional handpumps.

They also sell Belgian and American bottled beer and a selection of ciders.

"Chrissy and I are delighted and a little surprised to win the West Dorset Pub of the Year, having only been open for 19 months," said Mr Blake.

"We are becoming well known for our beers, so this accolade will do us a lot of good."

Famous for the annual nettle-eating competition, the next on June 7th, Chrissy is intending to make nettle soup to celebrate the event and the Mighty Hop brewery at Lyme Regis will make a special nettle beer for the occasion.

The Bottle Inn goes on to the CAMRA Wessex Regional competition, against 11 other pubs nominated by branches in East Dorset, Hampshire, Wiltshire, the Isle of Wight and the Channel Islands. The Wessex winner goes into the national finals.

The West Dorset 2014 Pub of the Year certificate was presented to Nigel and Chrissy Blake by CAMRA's Rich Gabe at the Dorchester Beer Festival, held at the Corn Exchange.

OBE for charity founder Hugo

ROTARIAN Hugo Pike has been awarded the OBE for his charity work with Worldwaterworks and their lifesaving Water Survival Box project.

Hugo, a member and past president of the Rotary Club of Chelwood Bridge, and director of Worldwaterworks, has been awarded the honour for 'Charitable Services in the UK and Abroad through the Rotary Club and Worldwaterworks Ltd.'

Hugo's said: "I am delighted that Rotary and the Water Survival Box project has been recognised in this way."

"This award is really, a tribute to all the trustees and our fellow Rotarians from Chelwood Bridge, who have given their time, physical effort and various talents towards the team effort. It also recognises the army of volunteers who work for the benefit of others in sympathy with the core principle of Rotary International which is 'Service above Self'.

It was Boxing Day 2004 when an earthquake off the coast of Sumatra, Indonesia triggered a tsunami in the Indian Ocean that hit coastal areas of countries from South East Asia to the Indian sub-continent and Africa.

It left 225,000 dead and millions homeless, without access to clean water.

Rotary was one of the organisations to which the public turned and through which donations in money and kind were made to be used for survivors.

For the next six months members of the Rotary Club of Chelwood Bridge in North East Somerset co-ordinated the Rotary response in District 1200 (Somerset, West Dorset and West Wiltshire).

Rotarians worked with dozens of local volunteers to fund and then pack 3,200 boxes of aid comprising water-purification kits and other essential survival items which were then sent to help affected families. Hugo's role was as unofficial team leader.

The 'tsunami operation' was reviewed in detail against its primary objective – to protect survivors from water borne diseases.

This award is a tribute to all the trustees and our fellow Rotarians from Chelwood Bridge.'

CONGRATULATIONS | Rotarian Hugo Pike has been awarded the OBE for his work with Water Survival Box charity Worldwaterworks

This led to an appreciation that the process needed to be streamlined so that the aid reached the people in the quickest possible time.

In 2006 the Rotary Water Survival Box (WSB) was born – the water purification kit is the first priority and other essential items include a kitchen set, health and hygiene set, simple shelter and basic tools; other general household items with which to start to rebuild the family's life are also included.

Seven senior members of the Rotary Club of Chelwood Bridge formed Worldwaterworks which was then approved as a registered charity.

Hugo was appointed chairman by his fellow trustees and continued in that role until the end of 2011, when he became Director of Operations.

Seven-and-a-half years later the charity has converted more than £1 million in donations to some 8,600 WSBs that have been sent by air to 32 disasters in 21 countries from Japan in the Far East, through South East Asia, the Indian sub-con-continent, Africa, the Caribbean, to Central and South America.

Our most recent operation has resulted in a total of 800 WSBs being sent to the central Philippines following the devastation caused by Typhoon Haiyan.

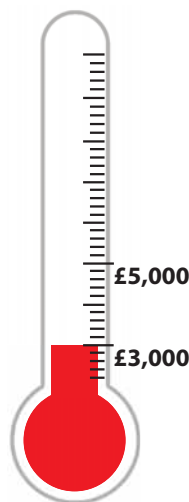

The boxes have been distributed to families most in need by Humanity First (one of the charity's international aid partners) and Worldwaterworks is holding back a further 250 boxes earmarked for the Philippines pending an updated needs assessment.

Hugo retired as Assistant Chief Constable of Avon and Somerset Constabulary in 1995, at the end of a 37 year career in the police service.

He first joined Rotary as a member of the Bath West club in 1978; following a break due to work commitments, Hugo rejoined in 1990 as a member of the Chelwood Bridge club, where he served as president in 1997/98.

He was made a Paul Harris Fellow in 2005.

WATER SURVIVAL BOX

Join our campaign!

IN A bid to raise £10,000 over two years for Water Survival Box, we are encouraging our readers and local organisations in East Devon, South Somerset and West Dorset – where we distribute in excess of 40,000 papers every week – to organise a fundraising event for the charity.

The Water Survival Box is crammed with all you need to stay alive after you have lost everything – cooking and eating utensils, basic means of shelter and other essential kit – but most importantly a water-purification pump that will make clean water from dirty water and provide a family of four with clean water every day for a year.

If you would like to organise an event, telephone James Coles on 01297 446155 and we will promote it in our columns. To make a donation, please make a cheque payable to 'Water Survival Box - View account' and send it to: James Coles, Water Survival Box campaign, View From Newspapers, Unit 3, St Michael's Business Centre, LYME REGIS, Dorset DT7 3DB.

Sherborne Turf

ESTABLISHED for over 40 years, Sherborne Turf is situated in the picturesque village of Trent in Dorset, where we have around 150 acres of quality farmland dedicated to the production of our Trent Turf. Grown without netting, we use a blend of grasses developed over the years that will knit together to form a firm base, and leave our turf in the ground for 18 months before harvesting. It is then freshly cut to order and delivered using our own vehicles. While the trade standard for delivery is 'kerb-side', we realise that this is not always practical for our customers, and so our experienced drivers always endeavour to place the items as conveniently as possible for you, a service which is often not provided by other companies.

Although our core business is turf production, we also supply a full range of locally sourced topsoil, compost, bark and mulch. Other essential garden items include fertiliser, irrigation equipment, landscape accessories, and a full range of seed mixes to grow wild-flowers and grasses for companion sowing.

Our delivery vehicles include an artic with removable forklift, a 6-wheel rigid crane lorry, and a pick up truck with trailer. We also have access to a wide range of vehicles for bulk loads of topsoil, compost and bark.

All of the staff here at Sherborne Turf have experience of the products we sell, and are happy to discuss any aspect of your garden project.

A.P. Chant kickstart Charlie's fundraising

ASHLEY Chant, managing director of AP Chant Building Services, has donated £200 to kick off Charlie Parkman's fundraising efforts for a trip to Camps International in the Borneo next summer.

Charlie, aged 14, is a Year 10 student at the Sir John Colfox School and was presented with a cheque at the AP Chant offices on Friday.

He told staff about his exciting project which will see him spending four weeks in the Borneo, living with the local people.

He will be supporting the community by constructing, painting, teaching children and completing a new water supply.

In addition he will help the local community to learn new ways of fishing and supplying themselves with food.

The environmental part of the project will be to replant hundreds of trees to replenish the deforestation, clearing coral reefs and beaches.

In addition Charlie will be helping the local wildlife, particularly the orangutans whose homes are being destroyed. New water holes, fish ponds and anti-poacher ranger stations will be constructed and livestock vaccinated.

Charlie is very excited about this project and is working hard to raise the money.

To sponsor Charlie, please contact Lisa Parkman on parkman415@btinternet.com or call 07900 128600.

Post office to close for refurb

by Jack Dixon

BRIDPORT post office will be closed for more than a week while the building is refurbished, meaning customers will have to find alternative services.

The post office will be shut from 6pm this evening (Wednesday) until 1pm on Friday, February 21st while the work takes place.

A free shuttle bus service between Bridport and Beaminster has been organised by the Post Office, but will only be available on Thursday 13th, Monday 17th and Wednesday 19th.

The service will run from Bridport Post Office at 10am, 11am, 12noon, 2pm, 3pm and 4pm, returning from Beaminster Post Office at 10:45am, 11:45am, 12:45pm, 2:45pm, 3:45pm and 4:45pm. The nearest other offices are in Lyme Regis and Bradpole.

Post Office area manager Adrian Skinner said: "We understand how important the post office is to residents around Bridport and we are confident that this new modern Post Office service will meet the needs of the local community and secure services for the future.

"This modernisation is part of a three-year investment programme, the largest in the history of the Post Office, that will see around half of the Post Office network converting to new style branches, and marks a commitment to no more branch closure programmes."

The new-look building has been redesigned as what the Post Office describes as a "modern, open-plan retail environment" and will re-open next week.

It will have a total of six serving positions, two of which will be screened, three open-plan and another serving point at the retail counter.

Symondsbury Kitchen

THE most recent transformation on Symondsbury Estate is the new café – Symondsbury Kitchen.

The Symondsbury Kitchen offers a selection of seasonal locally sourced and home cooked food, and the ethos is to offer delicious food in the most stunning and relaxing surroundings.

Seating up to 30 people inside, and the same amount outside in the warmer months, it's the ideal spot for lunch. There is also a relaxing corner, where you can "chill out" on the sofas and soak up the warm and cosy ambience whilst enjoying afternoon tea with cake.

Currently open from Thursday through to Sunday for Breakfast, Lunch and afternoon teas, delicious homemade cakes, coffee, hot chocolate, tea, cold drinks, and daily special lunches. All are welcome including dogs!

Friday, February 14th will see the Kitchen opening in the evening for the first time – offering a Valentine's Meal. The guest chef is Nick Holt of Dorset Fine Dining – two and three courses are available, and bookings are essential.

Late last year, Symondsbury Estate transformed a somewhat disheveled Milking Shed into Symondsbury Kitchen. Its now hard to believe that this beautiful café used to house around 30 cows and two milkmaids! Sympathetic renovations have transformed this building whilst still managing to retain many of the original features and character.

We have also created an 8km XC mountain bike and walking trail, which starts and finishes at Manor Yard, making Symondsbury Kitchen the perfect place to gather after a winter walk or bike ride through the stunning countryside.

Tea parties for children can be arranged, and the venue is available for private hire both at lunchtimes and evenings.

There is a selection of different venues throughout the Estate that are available for private hire, and the Estate welcome any local community groups or clubs that are looking for a meeting place. All catering can be arranged for you, whatever the occasion.

Everyone at the Symondsbury Kitchen pride themselves on being flexible, so if you have a specific request please contact them and they will be happy to discuss your requirements and create a tailor made package to suit your needs.

They look forward to welcoming you to Symondsbury Kitchen!

Marriage Week UK 7th-14th February

MARRIAGE vows are the most long-term promises we ever make – to love and care for someone else for the rest of our lives! They are a commitment to put someone else's interests as equal to our own, and they involve setting aside our own short-term 'wants' for long-term stability and satisfaction.

They are life changing – and have a huge impact on the way our lives work out. For those that make them they are 'the BIG Promise'.

Every year more than a quarter of a million couples across the UK signify their commitment to each other by getting married – they make, explicitly or implicitly, promises to each other that form the bedrock on which successful marriages are built.

And every year Marriage Week celebrates all those promises down the years, and seeks to encourage and support couples in their marriages.

In 2014 we plan that on 8th Feb, at 5.15pm, every couple in the UK will have the opportunity to re-affirm their Big promises to each other. We plan to draw attention to the BIG Promise by coordinating those venues that wish to, in setting a new Guinness World Record for couples reaffirming their vows

That's what the BIG Promise is all about – celebrating, supporting, strengthening couples across the nation!

Marriage Week is supported by a group of charities and individuals who believe that healthy marriages bring benefits for all of society and should be encouraged and supported wherever possible Marriage Week runs predominantly through local events put on by marriage champions and churches across the country.

Jekyll and Hyde

The classic silent movie revamped

Solarference

FANCY an alternative Valentine's celebration this weekend? If sentimental romance is not for you, then head down to Dorchester Arts Centre or Bridport Arts Centre where Solarference will be bringing their electrifying soundtrack to accompany the 1920 silent movie of infamously doomed lovers, Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

These two electronic musicians, whose roots lie firmly in folk music, cleverly improvise to provide live accompaniment as the tale unfolds. Mixing traditional folk song forms with live sound manipulation they create sublime and mysterious music that is a perfect complement to this iconic film's shadowy magic.

Their innovative ability to entwine both film and music has lead to widespread acclaim: Tom Robinson from BBC6 Music has described their show as 'Passionate and original...like nothing else you've ever heard before.'

Mark Tattersall, Artistic Director at Dorchester Arts recommends it as a unique experience and says: "As an alternative to the traditional night out for Valentine's Day come and see the passionate and tragic romance between Dr Jekyll and his poor fiancée Millicent in this silver screen classic!"

Solarference come to Dorchester Arts Centre on Friday, February 14th and tickets are available from the box office on 01305 266926 or Tourist Information Office 01305 267992 or online from www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

The film is also being screened at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, February 15th. Tickets for Bridport Arts Centre are available from the box office on 01308 424204 or online from www.bridport-arts.com

Bring the children along to discover how he decides in this funny play for young audiences by Pied Piper Theatre - a company known for high quality plays.

Lisa Wilcock, Marketing Manager said: "If you're looking for a magical experience come along to Care of Henry. I saw Pied Piper perform Great Gran's Great Games and they had a room full of children completely enthralled. Book now for a real half term treat".

FRIDGES, FROLICS AND FILMS

BEST known for his television and radio appearances on Have I Got News For You, They Think It's All Over, Paul Merton, Red Dwarf, The News Quiz and Tony Hawks' Lost Weekends (BBC Radio 4), comedian Tony Hawks is bringing the highly entertaining, 'Fridges, Frolics and Films' to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Friday, February 14th at 8pm.

vision and radio audiences, Tony combines storytelling, stand up, musical comedy and film clips to create 2 hours of guaranteed fun and merriment. Amongst other things Tony will recount the amusing and sometimes fraught story of how he went from being 'comedian and author' to 'comedian, author and film-maker' - producing both 'Round Ireland With A Fridge' and 'Playing The Moldovans At Tennis'.

Tony is also a bestselling author, having sold over 600,000 copies worldwide and gaining varied accolades including recommendations in the Sunday Times bestseller list (1998) and being shortlisted for both the Samuel Johnson Prize (2000) for non-fiction writing and the Bollinger Everyman Wodehouse Prize (2000).

Spoil your Valentine with Dinner and Champagne at The Harbour Inn

SITUATED on the beach front, overlooking the Cobb and Lyme Bay, the Harbour Inn is a family run business offering first class food, wines, ales, and views of the spectacular Jurassic Coast. Sue is the head of the family who runs the business alongside Son, Mark, and Daughter, Julie. They've been running the Harbour for 11 years now, but have been in the restaurant trade for over 20 years.

Their team of very experienced chefs, Darrel, Ben, Mark and Franco, have created a mouth-watering menu for Valentines Dinner. Darrel and Ben have been working together for 12 years, and picked up a few awards along the way, including two Taste of the West Gold awards, and Best of the West.

The Dinner Menu on the 14th represents great value for money, but is one your Valentine will feel truly spoiled to choose from, with starters including 'fried Lobster and Langoustine wontons', as well as 'little fillet of venison, prosciutto Wellington'. Main courses include succulent local lamb, a trio of fresh, local fish, and roast breast of Creaky Carver Duck, to name just a few. Finish the evening off with dessert and a fresh filter coffee. The full menu can be seen on the page opposite.

What's better than to celebrate Valentines and toast your romantic meal than a glass or bottle of bubbly? Cut out the voucher on the right hand side of this feature and take it along to receive 10% off all Champagne and Sparkling wine on the evening.

Darrel and Ben are also gearing up for the spring and summer seasons and are working on a new menu that will be ready in time for Easter. The new menu will showcase an inventive use of local produce as well as classic interpretations of old favourites.

The Harbour Inn remains popular with both locals and visitors alike. The Sunday Roasts are a favourite, with a choice of two locally reared meats served with all the trimmings, and the specials board is always full of fresh, local fish dishes, all of which can be enjoyed on the beached area with those first class views in the warmer months. Before we get to summer though, now is the time to take advantage of the winter specials with main courses starting from just £6.50!

On the back of some very successful nights over the Christmas period, local band and theme nights will continue regularly. Most recently the Casino Royale and 80's Disco nights went down an absolute storm, expect more of the same!

There is still time to book your table for Valentines, call now on 01297 442299 to avoid disappointment.

3-D Print Demonstration at Dorset County Museum

YOU may have heard about 3-D printing but here's a chance to actually see it taking place.

On Tuesday, February 18th Peter Brugger, a PhD archaeology student from Southampton University, will be demonstrating the process of 3-D printing at Dorset County Museum. Peter will show how a three dimensional plastic model is build up – layer by layer – by a high-tech 3-D printer. He hopes his research into scanning and recreating archaeological objects using 3-D printing will benefit the appreciation of archaeology in museums.

To see the technology at work, why not come in at around 10.00am when the process is in its early stages, then pop back later in the day to see the finished article? Peter will be at the Museum most of the day and will be happy to talk about his work and explain the procedure to visitors – his final talk will be at 2.30pm.

Entry to see the printing taking place in the Museum's Victorian Gallery will be free but donations are encouraged.

The Small Town Gal with the Big City Attitude

WENDY J Bassett will perform her tribute to the 50s, 60s, 70s and Ladies of Country at Bridport's Conservative Club this Saturday, February 15th.

A vibrant, sassy, female vocalist, Wendy will be performing a most entertaining evening incorporating outstanding hits from some of the best, most memorable singers of all time, including sensational hits from the 50s and 60s, fabulous upbeat floor fillers from the 70s, and even a sprinkling of country.

Doors open at the Conservative Club at 7pm, with music from 8.45pm. For more details please enquire at the Conservative Club, or call 01308 423231 after 6.30pm. Tickets are available on the door.

Shadow Worlds children's half term workshop

ARE you looking for something to do with the children this half term? Bridport Arts Centre has a range of arty activities planned with Kathy Kelly on Tuesday, February 18th.

Children create a twist on a traditional fairy tale in Intergalactic Adventure from 10am-12.30pm. The space themed workshop will see 8-11 year olds inventing new stories using puppets to tell them.

Later in the day from 1.30pm there will be a sensory experience for those aged 5-7 years old. Kathy Kelly will use music, lights, large-scale puppets and storytelling to entertain young children. Expect tales of fish, mermaids and monsters from the deep.

Workshops cost £10/ £8 concessions with a maximum of 12 participants per class. Call Bridport Arts Centre box office to book your place 01308 424204.

Valentine of Love and Heartache

A CHANCE meeting at Bridport's Health Centre has led to an extra poem being added to the Valentine's Day event at Bridport Arts Centre at 11.00 on Friday, February 14th.

Maurice Barnes, a well known local poet and relation of the famous Dorset poet, William Barnes, showed Margie Barbour, one of the readers, a poem he had written about Colmer's Hill. Further research by Christine Prideaux discovered a book of poems by Maurice, "A Poet Walks in West Dorset", and the group decided they must include one of Maurice's poems in their readings. So "Lyme Lovers" will be included with the poems by Dorset poets, Thomas Hardy, Bonny Sartin and of course one by his relative William Barnes. Maurice's son Eugene Barnes explained "Maurice is away and won't be able to hear the poem being read but he would be very pleased to know it was being shared in the Bridport Arts Centre"

The range of poems serious, humorous, loving and heartbroken read by David Bushrod, Christine Prideaux and Margie Barbour will be interspersed by songs from soprano Emily Hicks accompanied by Bruce Upton. Her songs will include Mozart's "Porgi Amor" from "The Marriage of Figaro" and the lyrical lovesong "Down by the Salley Gardens" by Ivor Gurney. Lovesick poems like "My True Love Hath my Heart and I have his" will be followed by humorous ones like Wendy Cope's "Bloody Men are Like Bloody Buses" and David Bushrod's version of "To His Coy Mistress" Virginia Astley, the 2013 winner of the Dorset Prize of the renowned Bridport Prize will read her poem "How did I ever think this would be ok?" Coffee and cakes will be available from the Garden café and the audience will be able to take their drinks in to the theatre to enjoy during the performance. Tickets from the Bridport Arts Centre box office 01308 424204 or www.bridport-arts.com are £6 and £5 for members and concessions. All profits will go to the Bridport Museum fund.

Symonds & Sampson Top of the League

SYMONDS & Sampson have been recognised as the leading, and most successful, firm of property auctioneers in the South West for the third year running (Essential Information Group statistics).

Auctioneer and Head of Agency, Mark Lewis, says, "We work extremely hard in ensuring that the auctions go smoothly, giving both the buyers and sellers as much help and information as possible. To get this recognition for the third year running is a terrific boost to all of us at the firm.

"We also managed to get into the top 25 auctioneers in the country on turnover, beating some very national and London players, but if you actually look at the percentage that we have sold we would have come second in the UK, missing out on top spot by 0.1%. We must do better! Our nearest direct rivals were positioned 162nd and 210th in the league which puts our position into perspective.

"The dedication of our staff and the qualities and professionalism that they possess is regularly commented upon and we are grateful to all of our clients, buyers, auction goers and the solicitors for their support throughout 2013.

"One of the keys to a successful auction is getting a good local solicitor on board and we are very fortunate to have in our region a number of firms who we work closely with and who we can trust to hit deadlines and be very helpful to prospective purchasers on the telephone.

"Our auctions in 2013 covered six counties, Cornwall, Devon, Somerset, Dorset, Hampshire and Wiltshire, and we have sold properties valued from £15,000 to £1.3million."

Whether you have a cottage or house for sale, building plots, development land, agricultural land or commercial property, Symonds & Sampson are the firm for you. Please telephone Mark Lewis for advice and a free market appraisal on 01258 473766.

New S-Class Coupé: An Aesthetic, Exclusive High-End Coupé

THE NEW S-Class Coupé from Mercedes-Benz combines the classic proportions of a large, sporty coupé with modern luxury and state-of-the-art technology. As a world première, the breathtaking two-door coupé can be optionally equipped with the MAGIC BODY CONTROL suspension system with curve tilting function. Additional technical highlights are the head-up display and touch pad feature. Optionally available expressive headlamps, each featuring 47 Swarovski crystals, produce a uniquely striking appearance.

"As exclusive as it gets – the ultimate in aesthetic sportiness", stresses Ola Källenius, Member of the Board of Management, Sales and Marketing Mercedes-Benz Cars. "The breathtaking design of the Concept S-Class Coupé marked by sporty-classic proportions and sensual purity is transferred to the series-production S-Class Coupé virtually unaltered. The large coupé has always been the supreme pinnacle of our model range and that's why it's now called the "S-Class" again."

"The world premiere of the active curve tilting function demonstrates the possibilities offered by Mercedes-Benz Intelligent Drive," notes Prof Dr Thomas Weber, member of the board of management of Daimler AG with responsibility for corporate research and Mercedes-Benz Cars development. "The vehicle leans into bends much like a motorcyclist, thereby reducing the lateral acceleration acting on the vehicle's occupants. On country roads in particular, this means greater driving pleasure and ride comfort for our customers." The new S-Class Coupé will have its world première at the Geneva International Motor Show (6 – 16 March 2014). The two-door car is available with a 4663 cc V8 biturbo engine. The S 500 Coupé has a nominal output of 455 hp, its torque level peaks at 700 Nm. The sporty motoring experience is significantly enhanced by the emotional sound produced by the exhaust system.

MAGIC BODY CONTROL, the first "suspension with eyes", had its world première in the S-Class. With the curve tilting function, the Coupé introduces a further world first for series-production cars: The Coupé leans into bends in a manner similar to a motorcyclist or skier. The lateral acceleration acting upon occupants is reduced in a way akin to when driving in a steep curve, and passengers sit more firmly. On country roads in particular, the new curve tilting function enhances motoring enjoyment and comfort.

Like the S-Class Saloon, the new Coupé is available with numerous new assistance systems that make driving even more comfortable and safer. The "Intelligent Drive" systems include, among other things, PRE-SAFE® brake with pedestrian detection, DISTRONIC PLUS with Steer Assist and Stop&Go Pilot, BAS PLUS with junction assist, Active Lane Keeping Assist, Adaptive High-beam Assist Plus and Night View Assist Plus. COLLISION PREVENTION ASSIST PLUS features an additional function apart from the adaptive brake assistant, which provides collision protection from a speed of 5 mph: if there remains a danger of collision and the driver fails to respond, the system can carry out an autonomous braking manoeuvre at speeds of up to 65 mph, thereby reducing the severity of collisions with slower or stopping vehicles. The system also brakes in response to stationary vehicles at a speed of up to 31 mph, and is able to prevent rear-end collisions at up to 25 mph.

As in the saloon, the PRE-SAFE® preventive occupant protection system has been expanded through the inclusion of PRE-SAFE® PLUS. PRE-SAFE® PLUS can recognise an imminent rear-end collision and warn following traffic by flashing the rear hazard warning lights at a high frequency. If the danger of a collision persists, the system can also firmly apply the parking brake on the vehicle once stationary and thus minimise the risk of whiplash injuries by reducing the forward jolt caused by an impact from the rear.

Numerous optional equipment features are available to make the interior of the S-Class Coupé exceptionally luxurious and comfortable. For example, the AIR-BALANCE package including "fragrancing" and "ionisation" components is available, as is the electric armrest heating as a component of the Warmth Comfort package. If the vehicle is equipped with the optional Seat Comfort package, the front seats feature the EN-ERGIZING massage function based on the hot-stone principle.

In cooperation with high-end audio specialists Burmester, two especially high-value audio systems have been developed: the Burmester® surround sound system and the Burmester® High-End 3D surround sound system.

Bridport Runners

From Bridport to Berlin - series underway!

BRIDPORT Runners kicked off 2014 with the first race in a series which sees them participate in venues beginning with the letter B, taking them all the way from Bridport to Berlin.

Although not an official racing series, the club have highlighted a number of events which started with the Blackmore Vale Half Marathon last Sunday, where eight members of the club all conquered the 13.2 miles in times under two hours.

First Bridport Runner to finish was Ben Renshaw in 1 hour and 18 minutes.

More races to come in the B series will include the Bath Half Marathon (March 2nd), Brighton Marathon (April 6th) and the Bournemouth Marathon (October 4th).

Highlight of the year, however, will be the Berlin Marathon on September 28th where six Bridport Runners will participate in what is supposed to be one of the best and fastest marathon races in the world.

One runner Vicky Ackerman will be on a fund raising mission in Berlin, collecting money for the Charity "Get Kids Going" which supports disabled children up to the age of 26 to access sport by providing equipment and support, for which Vicky has set up a donation website with more information under www.virginmoneygiving.com/BridportRunners.

Apart from participating in these prestigious races, Bridport Runners will again organise their own local "B" races.

These include hosting the Bridport Jurassic Coast Run for the second time together with the Bridport Leisure Centre and the Brit Valley Rotary Club. The event on July 13th includes a 10k, 5k, one mile and family fun run.

Also "The Bridport Mile" or Sports Relief Mile, at St. Mary's

■ UNDERWAY: The Bridport Runners who took part in the Blackmore Vale Half marathon

School in Bridport, on Sunday, March 22nd.

For anyone who is considering becoming a runner or getting fitter in general, Bridport Runners will start their new Beginners Class on Wednesday, March 12th at 6 pm at the car park of Bridport Leisure Centre.

Leaflets with more information about the Beginners Class and Bridport Mile are available at the Leisure Centre as from March 5th.

Commenting on the variety and challenge of the different races in the B series, Bridport Runners

Chair Brian Shelley is confident: "I hope that many people will come to our local running events and enjoy them. As an old Leonard Cohen fan, I think our motto for this year should be: 'First we take Bridport; then we take Berlin!'"

Hockey

Coombes at the double as Hawks go top

WEST DORSET HAWKS 4 SIDMOUTH & OTTERY A 2

A BRACE from Russell Coombes saw West Dorset Hawks leapfrog their visitors to lead the Davis Wood Hockey East 1 League.

Despite the poor weather forecast, a large crowd gathered to support the Hawks at The Sir John Colfox School to see if the hosts could continue their amazing run of 10 unbeaten games, eight of them victories.

The whole team rose to the occasion, and although tensions rose during the game, West Dorset were able to contain their aggression and put in some awesome tackles and moves throughout the game.

The back four led by example, and Charlie Davies showed some high class tackles to keep the visitors at bay, which in turn gave the half backs confidence to push up against their defenders and support the forwards in some great slick moves.

Unfortunately Hawks were reduced to 10 men after 10 minutes when captain Rick Dormor played a ball that was marginally above his head whilst tracking back and was immediately issued a yellow card and 10 minutes in the sin bin.

This made West Dorset dig even deeper, and again plenty of strong tackles from the old guard of Gavin Brooking, Lee Connolly and Julian May made sure that there was no way through.

Following the captain's forfeit, George Baker came on to bring some fresh legs to the midfield. His constant badgering and youthful energy helped the others around him, and the pressure continued to build against the visitors resulting in them taking the lead.

May lifted a great aerial pass down the right flank which was well picked up by Mike Thompson, who then pressured the opposition's goal. Eventually a rebound fell to Coombes who despite in an awkward position scored with a reverse stick shot to give the Hawks the lead.

This goal gave the home side the lift they deserved after playing some of the best hockey of the season, and they went back onto the attack, and with the captain coming back on the pitch to bolster the midfield so that Dan Wyatt could rest his legs, the pressure never relented, and after wave after wave of brilliant attacking play they scored a second through the impressive Alex Davis via a defender's stick.

The visitors however showed why they held top spot and halved the arrears from a short corner just before the break.

Hawks restored the regular midfield that has been so dominant all season with Wyatt resuming alongside Dormor, Coombes and the ever-reliable Rick Steele on the right flank.

Midway through the second half, Steele's constant hassling and running down the right, resulted in a superb tackle followed by a great hit in to the D, which was converted by Dormor with a risky first time shot that ricocheted into the back of the goal to leave Hawks 3-1 up.

Sidmouth & Ottery responded and put the home defence under intense pressure, and were eventually rewarded when despite a superb saving tackle from Charlie Davies, the visitors had players in hand and they fired past keeper Tom Lowe.

With time running out they pinned the Hawks in their own half seeking the equaliser that would keep them in top spot, but in a fine counter attack Coombes fired home the goal that saw Hawks take over as league leaders.

Great fightback from Hawks A keep them in the race

BRIDGWATER C 2 WEST DORSET HAWKS A 2
HAWKS made the long journey to play league leaders Bridgwater C knowing that defeat would dent their own chances of promotion from Davis Wood South East 3..

Four points behind at start of play, they found themselves two goals down inside 15 minutes at a wet and windy Chilton Trinity Sports Centre as Bridgwater settled the quicker scoring from a scrambled short corner and a neat move that bisected the Hawks defence.

It could have been even worse had Henry Middleton not cleared off the line from a short corner.

Hawks started finding their rhythm and scored just before half-time following a neat move on the outside of the D involving Giles Maltby and Rob Clarke who exchanged passes before firing into the D where John Kellas knocked the ball back to the unmarked Simon Wakely to slot under the keeper.

Hawks started the second-half on the front foot and it was no surprise when they drew level following a slick pass from Middleton to Richard Wilson down the left wing who crossed for John Kellas to beat the keeper at his near post.

The Hawks should have gone on to take maximum points following a series of surging runs down the right wing from Richard Puzey that set up a number of scoring opportunities; however none of these could be converted.

The visitors also missed a number of short corners as they increased the pressure on the hosts defence.

These missed chances almost came back to haunt the West Dorset side as some late Bridgwater pressure and a series of short corners nearly resulted in a winner for them, but some heroic last ditch defending and superb saves from keeper Lee Herrod secured a point.

The result saw the other promotion rival ECV Hornets C move into second place on their own two points ahead following their narrow 1-0 victory over second bottom OPMB, but with seven games to go Hawks are still in with a chance after they extended their unbeaten run to 11 games.

Beaminster's run continues

BEAMINSTER 6 BOURNEMOUTH 4THS 1

Channel Division One

BEAMINSTER Ladies hockey team made it five wins on the trot as they disposed of bottom side Bournemouth 4ths although the score line slightly flattered them.

With only one victory this season and having beaten them twice already with an aggregate of 11-1, Beaminster were expected to win, but the visitors didn't roll over and their experienced players ensured they made a good game of it.

Lucy Herbert got the hosts off to a good start scoring after two minutes and Lydia Brooking added to her debut hat trick two weeks earlier, by adding the second on ten minutes.

Herbert added her second and Beaminster's third after 25 minutes and when Polly Davies added another before the break it looked as if it could be another landslide result.

However some good defending ensured it didn't, and resuming after the interval, Bournemouth started brightly and pulled a goal back.

Parity prevailed for a while before Brooking scored her second with a touch home at the far post from Danni Donovan's pass midway through the half, before Donovan completed a victory that was not as dominant as the score suggests.

Third placed Beaminster travel to Salisbury 3rds next week before hosting league leaders Gillingham the following Saturday.

Jevon strike sees Terras forge ahead

Dorset Premier League
WEYMOUTH RESERVES took advantage of the weather to increase their lead at the top of the table to five points following their 1-0 win against Tintinull.

The 41st minute winner from Conor Jevon meant an eighth defeat of the season for the Tinmen who remain 13th place.

Third placed PORTLAND UNITED missed the chance to move up a spot when they came unstuck at Blandford United and slipped to a 3-0 defeat.

Robert Manson gave the Royals the lead midway through first-half with second-half goals from Daniel Snow and Craig Haim securing Blandford's victory.

Shaftesbury Town moved up a place to ninth with a 1-0 victory over visitors Poole Borough with a goal from Matthew Chant in the 53rd minute.

This was the Hornets 13th defeat of the season and they stay rooted to the foot of the table.

Bowls

Narrow defeat

Bridport Indoor Bowls
BRIDPORT men went agonizingly close to beating neighbours Dorchester in the Wessex League, losing 80-81 overall.

Arthur Stone, Phil Hedges, Bob Taylor and Keith Gentry had a fine 25-14 home win; Max Dare, Brian Walsh, Brian Morgan and Chris Thorne going down 16-20.

At Dorchester Mike Parsons, Brian Galpin, Bill Payne and Ken Enticott lost 16-24, but with the match on a knife edge, Dave Roberts, Mike Long, Brian Conisbee and Brian Rumble dropped a four count on the final end to draw 23-23, leaving Bridport with just three of the 16 points available.

Gill Hunt, Janet Tattershall, Millie Meech and Sue Walsh picked up two points in the County League with a superb 21-18 win at Bournemouth, whilst Francis Hewett, Ann Parkins, Pat Cornick and Margaret Clapp looked like making it maximum points as they led 13-10 after 14 ends, but a 2,3,3,1,2 burst by their opponents turned it Bournemouth's way to win 41-35 overall.

Lyn Craddock, Beryl Stork, Keith Jenkins and Brian Baker (25-14) and Brian Parker, Bernard Waterman, Rosie Wilton & Mary Corfield (19-18) were the winning rinks for Bridport against Gillingham in their four-rink mixed friendly.

Gillingham won the match overall as Sylvia and Mike Fletcher, Mike Craddock and David Aylott (11-23) and Gerry Moss, Barbara Jenkins, Sue Gentry and Martin Wilton (18-31) lost against good opposition.

Bob Buckler racing

Warrior defies conditions to land victory

THE Happy Warrior defied horrific conditions at Exeter on Sunday to land his second victory, and continue the good run that has seen him placed in each of his last four races.

The six-year-old ploughed through the ground which local trainer Bob Buckler described as "horrendous", to land the 2m3f Bathwick Tyres Handicap Hurdle for conditional jockeys' and almost £4,500 owner Nick Elliott.

Buckler continued: "The conditions were horrendous.

"As it was an all hurdle card, the course got chewed up and progressively worse which meant the horses in the last race bumper were almost out on their feet." He was surprised that his horse had coped so well with the mud because he has shown a preference for decent ground.

"He did very well considering the conditions and lobbied along well but was badly bumped on the final bend before two out; so much so it was the discussion of a stewards enquiry."

Whether, as a result of it or not, he made a mistake at the second last and ended up almost doing the splits on landing which saw jockey Gary Derwin lose his stirrup briefly, but both recovered well and he went on to win comfortably by 2½ lengths.

He will now go to Wincanton on Saturday or more likely wait until next week.

By the time of the sixth race on the card, The Bathwick Tyres Barnstaple Handicap Hurdle over 2m7f, the ground was horrible, and Buckler's other runner Ballyegan did well to finish a valiant fifth, and pick up £164 for his owners.

"He jumped well but just got stuck in the mud; the conditions were so exceptional. He had a throat operation in the summer of 2012 and has recovered well from it, but the extremely testing conditions saw him choke a bit."

Tinker Time is pencilled in for Sandown Park on Friday or Wincanton on Saturday where Somerset Lias may run providing the ground is not too heavy.

Blues receive Clubmark Accrediatation

BRIDPORT Rugby Club recently received the Dorset & Wilts RFU Club Accreditation award as acknowledgement for their work in promoting local rugby within the community.

Junior Section Chairman Julian Hussey received the award on behalf of the club from Dorset & Wilts RFU Chairman John Palmer in front of the young players, coaches and officials.

In making the presentation Mr Palmer told those present: "The RFU in conjunction with Sport England introduced the Club Accreditation scheme to help rugby clubs in England become stronger, effective, more efficient and more enjoyable places to play rugby.

"The scheme is based upon six key drivers which the RFU has identified as crucial to a strong club. These are: retaining and developing players, recruiting new players, recruiting and retaining high quality coaches, volunteers and referees, effective and efficient facilities, effective and efficient management and governance, and integration with the local community.

"Clubs are assessed by the RFU and must demonstrate evidence of good practice in areas such as club management, player development and recruitment, child protection, sports equality, coaching, refereeing and volunteering.

"Accreditation earns advantages like Sport England's Club-mark and is a mark how clubs are developing and thinking ahead, allowing them to record all good work they currently do, but also to action plan for the coming twelve months.

"Volunteers at Bridport Rugby Football Club have worked hard with their Ruby Development Officer, Chris Burton, to move the club forward and continue their development."

The club's John McHugh said: "In a major national sport like rugby it is a proven method of encouraging all clubs to raise the bar in their self-organisation and image presentation to their supporting communities.

"Bridport Rugby Club's stalwart secretary, John Patten, has, with others, worked hard to obtain this neither freely given, nor easily achieved standard. He has filled in forms, ticked boxes, jumped through hoops, made presentations and attended numerous meetings on behalf of the club."

Chairman Mark Perkin, added "The whole club is delighted that Bridport Rugby has received this award as acknowledgement of the work done by the club both on and off the pitch in promoting local rugby within our community".

It was another blank day for the club on Saturday with the Brewery pitch unplayable meaning the 1st XV postponed, whilst the 2nd XV's opposition New Milton 4th's sadly folded. This Saturday, weather allowing the firsts are away to Blandford (not home as per fixture list) whilst the second's travel to Ellingham & Ringwood.

Lyme Regis Golf

Double for Coley

BY RICHARD JACKMAN

WITH very little golf possible in many parts of the county the Lyme Regis Golf Club ladies managed to play a 15-hole stableford competition which saw Anne Humphreys win Division One with 31 points from Jane Southcombe on countback.

Division Two was won by Susan Moore (31 points) from Rosemary Dare (30) and Kim Beauchamp (28).

Ronnie Turner finally became 'the bride' in Division Three winning with 32 points from Lucille Bannister 31 points, and getting a well-earned handicap cut as a bouquet!

In place of their monthly stableford the seniors played a 15-hole fun stableford and leading us all home was Colin Conn with 31 points from Denis McConnell 30 points and Martin King, 29 points. Bob Kay managed to scoop all the 2s money.

John Coley had an impressive 2013 winning the Wellings Salver for the six highest stableford scores in 2013 with Alastair Purcell coming in second.

In the Frank Walker Trophy awarded for the best three stableford scores for those over 80 year's old, Tony Wakeling finished top with Derek Wenn in second place.

John Coley also won the Darlow Cup, a men's club competition for the player with the best net differential to handicap over 8 medal rounds from January to November.

This is probably a first for someone to win both victor ludorum cups.
